

my vienna guides

In contrast to tour managers, to hiking- and Alpine guides, and those employed to guide in specific houses or museums, the Licensed Guide in Austria practices a regulated trade to which one is admitted only after absolving a required curriculum, and passing a state examination. Therefore only the Licensed Guide is authorized to carry out comprehensive tours of historic and cultural sites, and to elucidate social and political ramifications.

You will recognize Licensed Guides by this badge:

